

him there - They all
agree with me in Philadelphia & specially McKew. Lord W. by this meant, do make him go at once before
it grows warmer -

He will be surprised
and was a good so
many Music Hall faces

there. On several occasions I came unexpectedly on two or three at a time -

From Wendell Phillips.

1862

Assure Garrison that Warrington is as safe to him as N. York - that I think he ought to go on & lecture - He knows not the
enthusiasm with which he will be received -
nor the good he will do - one regret I have in going west is that I lose the chance
to come home & urge
him to visit & perhaps go with him - But Duty to the cause calls

To W. S. G.

Extract from letter
rec'd to day - Dear friend, Do not put in the Liberator title revised. Phoebe
read me enough for me to know it
was not the speech
he delivered in Washington
Ann Phillips

1862.

Thursday Harrisburg,

Johnson has sent me
the Tribune Report of my speech to revise
which I had not seen
it is a miserable
report omits so much &c
as quite to change
the flavor of the whole
which was criticised as serious. " Turn over.

Ann G. Phillips

one stone unturned
to save our
poor country

Excuse my earnestness &
grant the prayer
of yr
"one beseecher"

Ann G. Phillips

You can go with Conway Thursday —

needs you; you
support him;
otherwise you leave
him alone with politicians &
his influence, <sup>without you</sup> must be comparatively
null, ~~without~~
you

Do not leave

Dear Garrison,

Do go to Washington,

29

Our party shld

be represented there

now; & you, the

Leader of it, shld

not let yr presence

be wanting at

this Crisis. Wendell
